

PRESS RELEASE

Jean-Pierre Debruxelles joins EUROPIA as Executive Officer in charge of Air Quality and refining issues.

Brussels, 4 September 2012: Isabelle Muller, EUROPIA Secretary General announced that Mr. Jean-Pierre Debruxelles will join EUROPIA as Executive Officer in charge of Air Quality & Refining issues as per the 1st of October 2012.

Jean-Pierre Debruxelles has a strong background in Environmental issues since he held the position of Head of Corporate Environment of SIF (Joint venture between NLMK and Duferco) and subsequently of Environment Director for the steel producer NMLK-Europe.

He was also active at EUROFER as chair of the Industrial Emissions Group. Isabelle Muller commented that “with regards to the importance of Air Quality in the European political debate, Jean-Pierre’s long experience will be a strong asset for EUROPIA”.

--- ENDS ---

EUROPIA, the European Petroleum Industry Association, is the single voice the European Refining & Marketing Industry, the downstream sector of Europe’s oil industry.

EUROPIA is a non-profit organisation and whose 18 members account for more than 80% of EU petroleum refining capacity and some 75% of EU motor fuel retail sales.

EUROPIA as a leading Industry Association aims at contributing pro-actively and constructively to the development of policies to safeguard the secure and sustainable manufacturing, supply and use of petroleum products by providing competent and expert advice to the EU Institutions, Member State Governments and the wider community.
